Anti-Reds Need American Aid, Dixonites Told

Exiled Pole Tells How Communists Grab More Power

"Nobody is going to die for nothing just to make a demonstration against communism," Aloizy Adamczyk, exiled Polish leader, told a small audience at the Loveland Community building Tuesday night. "The people of Europe must be convinced that they will be helped by America so that there is some hope of winning," Adamczyk added.

He spoke under the auspices of the Dixon Jaycees who sponsored the local Crusade for Freedom drive to collect funds for the National Council for a Free Europe. The council is sending prominent exiled leaders on speaking tours to acquaint audiences with conditions behind the iron curtain.

Union President

Before World War II Adamczyk was president of the Transportation Workers union in Poland and a member of the central committee of the Trade Unions of Poland. During the war he was a member of the Polish government in exile in London and a delegate to the United Nations Relief and Rehabitation administration and a workers delegate to the International Labor organization. He came to the United States in 1943 and refused to return to Poland in 1945 when offered a high position in the Communist-controlled government there.

Consolidate Parties

Adamczyk explained how after the Reds took over in Poland all political parties were consolidated. "There never has been an official Community party in Poland. They prefer to use the names of established political groups."

The trade unions suffered the same fate with officials brought in from the Soviet. Workers are forbidden to even discuss working conditions, he said.

Explains Control Method

He explained the "step by step" method used by the Reds in gaining control of industry. "First they nationalize the big fellows but allow independent firms to continue if they employe no more than 150 people. The next year they cut it to 100 workers and then 50. At the end of the present six year plan 90 per cent of the industry will be nationalized and the only free enterprises will be shoemakers and tailors." He said that the government controls wholesale sales and can eliminate small business by refusing to sell raw material or making the price too high.

Forbidden to Sell

When small businessmen saw that their doom was near they wanted to sell out but were forbidden to do so until they went bankrupt and lost everything, Adamczyk stated.

The speaker stated that a "fanatic burocracy" has developed in Poland where nobody wants to assume any responsibility and the buck is passed all the way down the line.

In education, young people are not allowed to attend a university unless they can prove they are loyal to the Communist party. After they have gained entrance the most intelligent are sent to Russia and Poland is losing its reservoir of intelligent youth. However, there is "tremendous opposition" against the Reds among the youth, according to information from within Poland.

Immigrants Barred

Adamczyk struck out against U. S. immigration policy by explaining that persons who flee the iron curtain can not be admitted to this country and that there is no place for them in Europe.

Conservatives Favored in British Election

Pre-Election Polls Predict Churchill Win

Socialism, War Big Issues in Voting Thursday

LONDON — (AP) — Britain's campaign ends tonight focussed on two critical issues —the country's place in a world threatened by way, and her bitterly controversial experiment in socialism.

Voters from a registered electorate of 35,000,000 cast their ballots Thursday.

Their choice lies between the Conservative party led by Winston Churchill, and the Socialists who came to power in July, 1945. The liberals, standing about midway between these two in doctrine, have entered too few candidates to form a government. They hope only to constitute a balancing "third force" in the next House of Commons.

Churchill Favored

Both big contenders forecast victory.

The general belief, however, is that Churchill and the Conservatives will come back to power by more than 35 parliamentary seats and possibly by 60 or more.

This belief is based to a large degree on numerous polls of public opinion, which unanimously favor the Conservatives. Newspapers which support the Socialists have conducted no surveys, or, if they did, have not reported their findings.

In addition, most independent observers expect a Conservative victory this time. They look for the majority of the 2,000,000 or more liberal votes in most of the districts where there is no liberal candidate to be cast for Churchill's party.

Two Facts Obvious

Apart from these poliitcal technicalities and party maneuverings, two facts are ominously evident. They confront every voter plainly, regardless of his political sophistication or his station in life.

One is that Britain has a bad case of low blood pressure economically. It's getting worse.

The other is that the bonds between Britain and the United States are frayed and working loose. Both sides recognize the seriousness of this in the struggle with the Communist world, and in a world where Britain is encountering new and serious troubles in areas she once dominated.

Need U. S. Aid

Britain was the first country to dispense with Marshall plan assistance and the Labor government is proud of that.

But many financial experts predict the country will need more American aid after the election regardless of which party wins.

Most people expect as well that the Conservatives will rewrite laws governing taxes on overtime work and on the employment of venture capital. They expect that with this new tax pattern of finance, millions of American dollars will be attracted to British investment areas.

Parade, Queen Coronation, Dance, Music To Highlight Dixon High Homecoming

It's homecoming time for Dixon high school.

Local merchants and school students are feverishly preparing for the homecoming parade Thursday night through the downtown streets of Dixon while Coach Sam Owens is putting the Duke gridders through their paces to get ready for the game with Rock Falls on Friday night.

Windows of most Dixon stores are expected to be decorated in keeping with the homecoming celebration.

And after Thursday's parade, a pep rally to spur the Duke football team on to victory will be held at the athletic field. The rally will be open to the high school pep squad, members of the student body and to the public.

Start At 7 p.m.

The parade is scheduled to start at 7 p.m. and the floats are asked to assemble at 6:30 p.m. along Page drive.

Route of the parade will be Lincoln way in front of the high school, north on Peoria avenue to Boyd street, east on Boyd street to Galena avenue, south of Galena avenue to Third street, west on Third street to Peoria avenue, south of Peoria avenue to Second street, east on Second street to Galena avenue, South of Galena avenue to First street, west on First street to Peoria avenue, north on Peoria avenue to Lincoln way and west on Lincoln way to the football stadium.

Parade In Stadium

The floats will then proceed around the track in the stadium. Winners will be announced when the floats reach the front of the grandstand. In case of rain, only the winning floats will enter the stadium.

Floats will be entered by all clubs and organizations at the high school and some merchants are also expected to have parade displays.

Parade judges elected by high school homeroom representatives are Hugh Hough, representing The Telegraph, Dr. W. L. Stitzel of the school board, Carl Plowman representing Dixon merchants and George Lindquist of the Booster club.

The high school student body wil be expected to march in the parade along with members of the pep squad. And the much praised high school band will provide marching music.

Will Dedicate Flag Pole

Although football will be the important event Friday night, many other activities will complete the homecoming program.

Between the frosh-soph and varsity games, George Lindquist on behalf of the Booster club will present a flag pole for the field to Athletic Director Art Bowers. The flag will be a gift of the Ro-

A Congressional Medal of Honor winner, Brig. Gen. W. H. Wilbur will be one of the speakers at the Friday meeting of the Rock River division of the Illinois Education association at Dixon high school, it was announced today by Mrs. Irene Herrmann, Rochelle, program chairman.

The other speaker will be Clyde Parker, superintendent of schools, Cedar Rapids, Ia., who will speak on "Public Education—Mid-Century Style."

West Point Grad

Gen. Wilbur's subject will be "The Crisis in American Foreign Policy." He graduated from West Point in 1912. During World War II he participated in the landing in Morocco and the fighting in Tunisia and Italy. For his personal heroism and leadership in battle he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor and then promoted to the rank of brigadier general through recommendation of Gen. George S. Patton. Also he served 11 years as an army instructor.

Surveys Europe

Since the war he has engaged in surveys of Europe and the Orient and in a study of industrial relations in the United States. He has just returned from a study of conditions in Europe.

Parker served as teacher and administrator at Huntingberg and Washington, Ind., until 1943, when he became superintendent of schools at Cedar Rapids. He had worked in school reorganization in both Moline and Cedar Rapids where he is directing an extensive building program. He is a life member of the National Education association and the American Association of School Administrators. He served two terms as president of the department of superintendents of the Iowa Teachers association. Recently he was appointed chairman of the revision commission of the American Association of School Administrators to revise the 1942 yearbook, "Health in Schools."

1,700 Expected

An estimated 1,700 educators from Lee, Ogle, Whiteside and DeKalb counties will attend the convention at the Dixon high school Friday.

Council Does Business in Six Minutes!

In a six minute city council session last night, Commissioner C. L. Ballard was appointed to the board of local improvements to replace George Lindquist.

At a special meeting last Thursday, Ballard was appointed commissioner of public health and safety, the city council post held by Lindquist before his resignation.

The council also approved payment of bills totaling $10,200.72.

In a slightly longer meeting (eight minutes) of the board of local improvements, a resolution was authorized for bids on the planned Clark street sanitary sewer. A petition had been received from residents near the south city limits requesting the sewer be installed by special assessment.

The sewer would be constructed from the Galena avenue and Division street corners to the city limits. The petition had been signed by nine out of the 10 property owners in the area which was recently annexed to the city.

Body of Dixon Marine Hero to Arrive Soon

The body of Pfc. George Earl Dempsey, 23, of Dixon, who was killed while fighting with the Marines in Korea June 14, 1951, will arrive in the United States soon and will then be immediately shipped to Dixon.

The Marine hero had previously been awarded the purple heart for action in Korea on April 24, 1951.

He is survived by his son, Larry Eugene, his mother, Mrs. Mabel Dempsey, one brother, Cpl. Wayne Dempsey, now with the Marines in Virginia, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Springer.

Before entering the Marines he was employed by the Yellow Cab Co. He entered the service in 1946 and served at Parris Island and in California before landing in Korea March 4, 1951.

His body will be taken to the Chapel Hill funeral home. Arrangements will be announced.

Poison Liquor Death Toll 28; More Will Die

Jail Twelve for Sale of 'Good Liquor—Cheap'

ATLANTA — (AP)—The toll of liquor poisoning deaths reached 28 early today—and the list of dead is expected to grow.

Twenty-two persons died of methyl alcohol poisoning at Grady hospital in the wake of weekend sales of a mixture of wood alcohol and water peddled as "good drinking liquor —cheap." Six others died in their homes.

Physicians at the hospital have treated more than 100 persons for the deadly poison, and cases still were coming in today. Of the two dozen victims remaining under hospital care, several were given only a scant chance for recovery.

Twelve Jailed

Twelve Negroes accused of peddling the potion have been jailed on charges of suspicion of manslaughter. Officers are searching for an unidentified white man believed to be the source of supply.

Death struck almost instantly in some cases; in others no ill effects were noticed for as much as 48 hours.

Most of the victims were Negroes. Two white persons succumbed to the poison and three others were treated at Grady, the city's emergency hospital.

One of those treated was a 10-year-old Negro boy.

Stricken Blind

Those stricken collapsed at home, in the streets and alleys and in automobiles. One woman was found dead in a chair on her back porch. A man told police he bought a drink on a street corner and 30 minutes later was admitted to Grady hospital—blind.

As casualties neared epidemic proportions and the poisonings became known generally, the hospital was swamped with patients. Hospital Supt. Frank Wilson said about 75 persons who had drunk bootleg liquor became hysterical and rushed in with only imaginary symptoms of wood alcohol poisoning. But more than 100 others showed actual symptoms.

Car "Soup"

Methyl alcohol often is used to "soup up" racing cars. It can be purchased in 50-gallon lots for about $1.75 a gallon.

Citizens were warned to beware of any liquor except that sold in legitimate stores.

L. O. Reagin, 54, one of the Negroes rounded up by police, admitted buying 62 gallons of moonshine from an unidentified white man and reselling it. When he learned it was making drinkers ill, he told officers, he recovered 37 gallons and returned it to the white man. Police said apparently this 37 gallons was put back on the market.

Bradley Stars Enter Pleas in New York Court

Face Maximum Sentence of 3 Years in Prison

NEW YORK — (AP) — Three former Bradley university basketball players pleaded guilty today to a conspiracy charge in the national basketball bribery scandal.

The players, Eugene Melchiorre, George Chianakis and William Mann, were indicted in connection with a plot to fix a game with Bowling Green, of Ohio, on March 19, 1949.

General Sessions Judge Saul S. Streit set Nov. 14 as the date of sentencing.

Maximum Three Years

Conspiracy is a misdemeanor, punishable by a maximum sentence of three years in the city penitentiary.

The indictment against the players had charged bribery and conspiracy, to which the players originally had pleaded innocent.

They were allowed today to plead guilty to the misdemeanor charge. The effect will be that the bribery charge, a felony, will not be pressed.

They are among 31 players from seven colleges so far named in the basketball "fix" scandal.

List Schools

The schools are: City College of New York, Long Island university, New York university, Manhattan, Toledo, Kentucky and Bradley.

The former Bradley players entered their pleas just a day following the arraignment of three former University of Kentucky stars, Alex Groza, Ralph Beard and Dale Barnstable.

The Kentuckians, charged with taking bribes to fix a 1949 game, were released in $1,000 bail for hearing on Nov. 7.

Assistant District Attorney Vincent A. G. O'Connor recommended in court that "these Illinois players receive the same consideration as was accorded to the New York City players who were permitted to plead to misdemeanor counts to cover their indictments."

Most Cooperative

"They have been most cooperative and took the position that they wanted to help clean up this bad situation," O'Connor said.

General Sessions Judge Saul S. Streit accepted the recommendation and the players stepped forward one by one to enter their pleas. They were continued in $500 bail each pending sentence.

Four men now are under indictment as the alleged bribers of the Peoria players. They are Nicholas Englisis, his brother, Anthony; Saul Feinberg and Marvin Mansberg, all of New York City.

Discussing the deal, O'Connor told the court:

Scheme Fails

"They (the players) agreed to accept $1,500 ($500 each), but the deal by which the Bradley team was to lose by seven points fell through because a substitute who was not in the plot scored a last minute field goal and cut Bowling Green's margin to five points. The result was an 82-77 victory for Bowling Green. It ruined the betting coup."

County Over the Top in Crusade Drive

Some Strikers Return at New York Docks as Pickets Boo

NEW YORK—(AP)—Some dock hands resumed handling of military cargoes today, braving the boos and catcalls from wildcat strikers who threw up mass picket lines along New York's vast waterfront.

Most of the port still was numbed by the longshore strike, which has stirred a plea for presidential intervention. But at two army piers, some of the idle men returned to work.

Biggest break in the military-cargo tieup was in Statem island, where eight military ships awaited loading. There, 300 stevedores streamed past picket lines, amid shouts of "double-crosser" and boos from strikers.

There was no violence.

Sign Workers

At the same time, the army mustered a handful of about 50 new dock workers, signed on as special civil service workers, for jobs at Brooklyn's huge port of embarkation. The strike began in Brooklyn 10 days ago.

This development came as the government sent its top labor conciliator, Clyde M. Mills, from Washington to try to iron out the strike, which has stranded more than 100 ships.

The strike, set off by a local revolt against a recently negotiated contract of the International Longshoremen's Association, has spread throughout the New York-New Jersey harbor area, and crippled operations in Boston and Albany.

Pledges Action

New Jersey's Gov. Alfred Driscoll stepped into the picture today, declaring the situation a "threat to the general welfare." He pledged action to keep military cargoes moving.

At the same time, Joseph Curran, head of the powerful CIO National Maritime Union, modified a pledge of support to the striking AFL dockers by saying the seamen would not back any tieup of military cargoes.

Jury Awards Lee Center Pair $5,000 for Drainage Damage

A Lee county circuit court jury Tuesday night awarded $5,000 damages to Benjamin A. and Mary Schmall, Lee Center, in their $25,000 drainage suit against a Lee Center township neighbor, Charles Ackerson.

The jury deliberated 2½ hours. Present in the courtroom when the verdict was brought in were the Schmalls, Circuit Clerk Shaulis, reporters and bailiffs.

After hearing the verdict, both of the Schmalls said "We're very thankful, but it won't make up for the loss we've suffered." They then shook the hands of jury members.

Defied Injunction

The Schmalls had charged that Ackerson had blocked drainage from their farm onto the Ackerson farm, contrary to provisions of a court injunction brought in 1946, and that backed up stagnant water had ruined crops on about 15 acres a year.

Yesterday afternoon Ackerson denied the charges. But his sons, Donald and Russell, said they had put up a block in 1943 which was removed in 1946.

Claim Land Higher

Eight other witnesses for the Ackersons said that they had examined the drainage in question on Oct. 11, 1950, and found no blocks. They also testified that it appeared to them that the land on the Ackerson farm is slightly higher than on the Schmall farm.

Testimony by Mrs. Schmall refuted a statement by Don Ackerson that he had not spoken to the Schmalls since the court injunction in 1946. She said they had talked on Main street in Amboy one Saturday night in the spring of 1948.

It takes two years for us to learn to talk, and the rest of our lives to learn to keep our mouths shut at the right time.

Retired Chiropodist Slays Wife, Then Ends Own Life

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA.—(AP)—A retired Chicago chiropodist fatally wounded his third wife and then took his own life here yesterday in what officers said was a case of murder and suicide.

Deputy Sheriff Joseph Leaird of Broward county said Dr. Frank J Furch jr., 48, who served eight years in Illinois state prison for killing his second wife, shot Mrs Lucy Slingerland Furch, and then killed himself to climax a marital rift

Between the shootings, the doctor beat Mrs Furch's 11-year-old daughter, Pamela, with a gun butt and fired three shots at her but missed, Leaird reported. The child suffered cuts and bruises on the head but was reported in "good condition"

Files for Divorce

Mrs Furch had filed suit for divorce Saturday, alleging she had been beaten and threatened

Police early yesterday found Mrs Furch bound and gagged, lying on a twin bed with a bullet wound in her head Dr Furch was on the living room floor, also with a bullet in his head He died six hours later. Mrs Furch died last night. She was 46.

Dr Furch, a Princeton university graduate, was former president of the Illinois Association of Chiropodists and a dean of the Northwestern Institute of Foot Surgery. He and his first wife, Myrtle, had two children

Police records show that in 1937 Dr. Furch tried to kill himself after fatally shooting his divorced wife, Norma, and slightly wounding her maid He was sentenced to 14 years in the Illinois state prison at Joliet but was released in 1945.

He founded the National Association of Nursing Homes in 1949 and this year was executive secretary of the group's National Golden Agers' Day committee. Golden Agers were described as persons who had pased their 60th birthday

Dr Furch left a note addressed to Orville Revelle, assistant editor of the Fort Lauderdale Daily News asking him to forward a watch to Bernard Baruch as "The Golden Ager of Distinction"

Claims Brainy, Skillful Men Plan Socialism

CHICAGO —(AP)— William H. Ruffin, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, asserted today that "a group of brainy and politically skillful men" are promoting "socialism by stealth" in America.

Ruffin made the statement in an address prepared for delivery at a luncheon meeting sponsored by the Employers' Association of Chicago the Illinois Manufacturers Association and the NAM

Ruffin, a Durham, N. C., mill operator, declared

"Many, if not all, of the socialist measures imposed upon us in recent years are simply the result of the very smooth operations of a small group of astute political manipulators who keep out of the headlines and work in the inner councils"

"Socialism" he continued, "is not necessarily achieved by a series of whirlwind moves. In the modern world, it is more often a slow but steady weakening and infiltration of capitalist society"

Dr. Sander Barred From Hospitals

NASHUA, N. H., (AP)—Dr. Hermann N Sander the small town physician whose murder trial last year won world attention, failed last night to regain the right to treat patients in Hillsborough county non-denominational hospitals

His application for re-admission to the county medical association was denied by a vote of 58 to 48—13 short of the required two thirds majority of the number voting.

The association dropped from membership the 42-year-old Candia, N H, general practitioner after he was charged with taking the life of Mrs Abbie Borroto, 59, of Manchester, a hopelessly ill cancer sufferer.

Membership in the association is necessary to treat patients in the county's hospitals Dr. Sander was barred for life from the Sacred Heart and the Notre Dame hospitals, Manchester, both run by Catholic nuns

His license to practice medicine—taken away when the charge was brought—was restored in June, 1950, three months after a Hillsborough county superior court jury acquitted him of the charge he injected air into Mrs Borroto's veins to hasten her death.

He admitted the injection but said he could not explain why he did it.

Dr. Sander has resumed practice but refers hospital cases to other physicians

Gov. Stevenson Claims Club Slots 'Sterilize' Citizen's Power to Control Gambling

SPRINGFIELD —(AP)— Gov. Stevenson said last night that reputable citizens who play slot machines in lodges "sterilize" their power to get honest local law enforcement.

They indulge in a "double standard of law observance," he told the Sangamon County Bar association.

"I know all the arguments about how the slot machine in the country club is one thing and the slot machine in the corner saloon is another," the governor said.

"And I know further that the citizen who violates the law in his country club or fraternal lodge is in no position to, and does not in fact, insist that his elected officers enforce the law.

Sterilize Power

"By this very act of self-indulgence," he declared, "many of our most reputable and influential citizens sterilize their power and influence to demand and get faithful performance by their local officials.

"They have tied their own hands and stopped their own mouths—and on this issue they evaporate as a community force," he added.

Stevenson said such persons "delude" themselves that they have found a way of maintaining their club houses for nothing.

"They pay 10 times over in terms of lax law enforcement, corroded officials and venal politics, and finally the loss of self government to higher levels of authority," he said.

Trend to Lodges

In 1949, before the state police began raiding taverns and smashing gambling equipment, three fourths of federally taxed slot machines in 76 Central and Southern Illinois counties were in taverns.

Now, he said, 75 per cent are in fraternal lodges, 18 per cent in country clubs and only seven per cent in taverns.

The gross number of registered slot machines, which topped 8,400 two years ago, has dropped to 1,-763, he said.

The governor said not one of the 40 state police raids conducted since May, 1950, was necessitated by any inherent inability of local officials to cope with conditions on their own.

Recommends Disbarment

Where state's attorneys have put their foot down, gambling has dried up and no state officers came in, he said.

He called upon state and local bar associations to consider recommending disbarment of prosecutors who tolerate flagrant gambling.

"You have great power to guarantee decent law enforcement if you but use it," he told the lawyers.

Stevenson lamented the situation that finds taxpayers paying double for law enforcement—"to the local officials who fail and also to the state to do the job for them."

It represents a "classic case of why governmental functions migrate to higher levels," he said.

Local Default

"In this case, certainly, there is no one higher up reaching down for the added power. Rather it is being thrust upon them by local default," he added.

"And it is high time we recognize that this myth of a conspiracy against our liberties from above is too often only a device to excuse our own inaction."

Stevenson said that he would prefer to see the state police concentrate on duties other than anti-gambling law enforcement.

"But they are not going to get out as long as I am in if by doing so law enforcement will go by default and the hoodlums get the green light to exact their grim toll on our purses, our morals and our public life," he said.

5 Doctors Prove You Can—And Jump Out Of Bed In The Morning Rarin' To Go

Medical science knows the liver should pour out an efficient supply of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not efficient, your food may not digest properly. Then gas can bloat you up. You can get constipated again. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

5 New York doctors have proved mild, gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills do stimulate an efficient flow of bile to make you feel "up and up." And bring back the glorious feeling that goes with regularity. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills today, 37¢ at any druggists.

Actor's Son, 16, Father of Child

SANTA MONICA, CALIF. —(AP)— Richard A. Brimmer, 16-year-old son of the late actor Richard Dix, is the father of a son, it became known yesterday.

The boy was born in a hospital here last Friday to Mrs. Brimmer, the former Jo-Ann Beaman, also 16.

The couple married recently after parental objections had been removed and a paternity suit brought on behalf of the expected baby was dismissed in superior court here.

Vatican Envoy Being Opposed By Lutherans

CARTHAGE, (AP)—Then central conference of the Illinois synod of the United Lutheran Church in America was on record today as protesting President Truman's appointment of an envoy to the Vatican.

The synod, composed of 35 Central Illinois churches, made its protest Monday, before the president announced he would not give Gen. Mark Clark a recess appointment to the post.

The central conference resolution said in part, "We deplore the action establishing ambassadorial relationships with the Vatican. Such establishment of preferential status of one church above all others is a fortright blow at religious freedom which is an American heritage."

Heavy Operation

TORRANCE, CALIF. —(AP)— When Eugene Adkins, 29, entered Harbor general hospital, he had an official escort of five firemen, one policeman, two ambulance attendants—and a laundry truck.

That's what it took to move Adkins' 682 pounds from his Long Beach home to the hospital for an operation, probably today. He is paralyzed from the waist down as a result of an automobile accident.

Runaway Mental Patient Killed In Gun Battle

PETERSBURG, Va., (AP) — A badly wounded mental institution escapee, shotgun still cradled in his arms, was killed late yesterday by a fusillade of bullets that ended a seven-hour gun battle in which a state police investigator was killed and six other persons were hurt.

Police shot Herbert Johnson, 37-year-old Negro, after storming an unoccupied two-story farm house in which he had taken refuge following his flight from the nearby Central State hospital.

Johnson had one shell left in his gun and was still on his feet when 10 officers ended the siege by moving in under clouds of tear gas and a withering barrage of covering fire from an armored car circling the building.

The officers, on the lower floor, spotted Johnson upstairs through holes made by fire from their riot guns. Two of them fired. Johnson fell.

Until that time, police had been hard-pressed to stay out of range as Johnson fired at them with a gun he is believed to have found in the residence just after he fled the hospital.

Investigator Wallace M. Simpson, 39, was killed by a shot from the window as he tried to rush the house. Two other officers, two patients and two hospital employes were wounded.

Johnson, a patient at the hospital about six years, was not regarded as a mental case with criminl tendencies.

Deputy Fizzes Drunks, Then Gets Suspension

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— A squirt of fizz in the physiognomy is funny in the films.

But when Dep. Sheriff Edward Houtz fizzed the phizzes of a couple of men who were a bit fuzzy around the edges, he used not seltzer water, but a fire extinguisher.

That's no way for an officer to revive a drunk, said Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz yesterday, and he gave Houtz a suspension.

Fanatical Assassins of Moslem World Serving Communism Well

The fanatical assassins of the Moslem world are serving the cause of Communism well, though that hardly is their intent. First to fall before them this year was Premier Razmara of Iran. Then King Abdullah of Jordan. And now it is Prime Minister Liaquat Ali Kahn of Pakistan.

Is there a Communist hand at work in these frenzied killings that have done and will do so much harm to the free world's position? Probably not directly. But it is wholly possible that the Kremlin is subtly stimulating nationalist ferment in Moslem lands through the shrewd dispensing of money to fanatical groups.

* * *

This was strikingly true of Liaquat Ali Kahn. Domestically, he had led Pakistan down a progressive course that argured well for the future of his populous new country. His was the voice of calm reason, curbing the extremists.

Beyond Pakistan's border he aligned himself strongly with the free nations. By putting 80 million Asiatics in the Western orbit, he went far to offset the loss suffered by Indian Prime Minister Nehru's insistence upon a misguided "neutrality" which serves only Moscow.

With distrust of the West today almost axiomatic among Asiatic leaders, Liaquat Ali Kahn had the courage to go against the tide.

He likewise was firm in pressing Pakistan's claim to the princely state of Kashmir, predominantly Moslem territory also claimed by India and now under the latter's military control.

* * *

Though the United Nations several times recommended a plebiscite that would fairly leave to the citizenry of Kashmir the decision of which nation to join—a proposal entirely suitable to Pakistan—Nehru repeatedly declined to accept this equitable solution.

* * *

Inevitably, extremists chafed impatiently at the halter put upon them by the Pakistan government's temperate course. One of these apparently was his assassin, since he accompanied his fatal shots with a cry for a "holy war against India."

* * *

Nehru has expressed his regrets. In one sense sincerely, inasmuch as his abhorrence of violence is genuine. But in another, hypocritically. For Nehru's obstinacy over Kashmir must be recognized as a prime element in the situation that led to Liaquat Ali Kahn's death.

With sore spots spreading through the Middle East, there could not be a wore time for a fevered clash of wills—and perhaps arms—between Pakistan and India. The free world must somehow hope that the dead prime minister's tradition of moderation will re-assert itself and take command. If it cannot, responsibility for any outbreak must rest with those who provide fanatics with the fuel to inflame their peoples.

We Could Use More

The other day the first of a new breed of American soldiers got into uniform. They were aliens from European lands, mostly refugees from Iron Curtain territory. Under a new law, the army is authorized to recruit 12,500 of them. After five years of service, they become eligible for American citizenship.

There's only one thing wrong with this law. Its ceiling is too low. Europe is jammed with able-bodied young refugees eager to serve the cause of peace in the American army. Many more of them deserve the chance.

If You Are Prone to Worry Over These Things -- Don't

Don't worry—

When the woman whose home you've only seen on special, apple-pie order occasions, happens to drop by when your own house is in a mess. All you have to do to get even is drop in on her some Monday morning—early.

When you suddenly realize that you're not as young as you once were. Nobody is—not even Rita Hayworth.

When another woman makes a catty remark, aimed directly at you. If she didn't have some reason to envy you, she wouldn't bother being catty.

When you think of all the things you want for your house but can't afford. If you ever got it looking like the magazine pictures, you'd just wear yourself out trying to KEEP it looking that way

When it seems as though no day is ever long enough to accomplish all you planned to do That's better than worrying over how you can kill time

Don't Let Failure Get You Down

When you realize that you've handled a situation badly That shows you are growing and learning Next time you'll be wiser.

When you haven't exactly the right thing to wear to a party Other people won't remember what you wore, but they'll remember what you say. Your conversation is going to be a lot more important than your clothes

When you don't get as much appreciation as you expected for some thoughtful act If you're worrying about that it's a cinch your 'high' motives weren't so very high after all You were working for praise, primarily

When you aren't sure you are capable of handling a job that is offered you or that you feel you should All the chances are in your favor if you will make up your mind to take the job and do it to the very best of your ability.

WESTBROOK PEGLER

Claims Graft and Corruption of Roosevelt Regime Has Changed Standard of Behavior

(Copyright, 1951, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

NEW YORK—If the people of the United States had decent standards they would instinctively revolt against all exploitations of public office for private gain, all nepotism which is a euphemistic name for graft and has been practiced to a notorious degree by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman and most governors and mayors—Tom Dewey being a distinguished exception—and all the other familiar variations of sin.

Westbrook Pegler

It is not a priggish affectation to object to sin in public life. On the contrary, it is a desirable minimum requirement of public servants that they hold themselves to behavior which is not only innocent under the law but virtuous according to the decalog. Many sins are not statutory crimes. An excellent formulation of that proposition was written by Father Daniel Lord, S. J, of St. Louis, under the title "Open Letter to a Boss." The "boss" thus addressed actually was Truman's political and ethical preceptor, Tom Pendergast, a loathesome character of showy outward piety who robbed the people, degraded and depleted their educational and municipal systems, took toll of the shame of his regional neighbors' daughters in brothels run by his toleration, and so molded his protege that we found Truman not only condoning graft but belittling the enormity of treason in his political household.

We have had no moral sinking spell in our history comparable to the Roosevelt era when a god-man set the example of Elliott's loans, Jimmy's use of the White House for a boob-trap and Eleanor's tireless exploitation of the highest secular office on earth for money. The effect was the worse upon the morals of the people because so many of them did regard this cynical rascal as a god or god-sent guide and embraced his wickedness as a good example. A reformation doubtless will come in time, but the people now condone or take no notice of dishonesty which ought to shock them.

Father Lord's open letter reminded the "boss" that he had a religious obligation as well as a legal responsibility and held him accountable for scandalous effects as well as for these particular deeds of themselves. He admonished this "boss" that the jurisdiction of the confessional included matters beyond the authority of the grand jury. The standards here bespoken would be no better than a reasonable minimum for the people of the United States to establish for all their public servants and themselves.

Our journalism also has dirtied itself with practices which by honest standards, are unspeakable. We have been deliberately guilty in this and with no other motive than to make circulation and money.

I was a sports writer when sports was believed to be the rogue branch of the business, although I believe the graft was exaggerated. At any rate, the ballclubs had an open practice of sending "presents" to the baseball writers at Christmas which usually were suitcases for their travels, merchandise orders on haberdashers or golf balls. Tex Rickard had a mysterious "list" of boxing writers who were believed to be in his fee on the quiet, at least one of whom, I was convinced, never got a dollar. The paymaster of this illicit business may have knocked down the money.

It is plainly unethical of a writer covering fights to own a "piece" of a boxer. Whoever must be told why is a moral illiterate and we did have some who honestly saw no wrong But others were celebrities who practiced this racket with their eyes open.

But such mere graft in money was petty in its effect on the moral fibre of the newspaper business compared to the creeping corruption of gents' room journalism. This dirty business began during prohibition. Its leading practitioners traded on their friendship with the worst criminals of the underworld Most of them were cowards, afraid to write the truth about this criminal class and so became, in effect press-agents for them, ballyhooing their dives and their women. All were far beneath the intellectual level of a copy boy. They had absolutely no newspaper training.

This was where the men in charge of the papers, the editors who were stewards of the trust of a free press, should have stepped in. But this fraudulent material was selling New York papers so papers in the provinces began to buy this offal from syndicates. Some will even make room for it at the expense of legitimate news in a tight paper. There is not an editor in the United States who does not know these to be facts. Not an editor but knows that the press deliberately fostered a cult of ignorant, vicious gossips, no more aware of the dictates of honor and objective propriety than so many swine in a wallow.

They were constantly being scooped by the city side because they were either under obligations to the Owney Maddens and Big Frenchies of the time, or afraid to write the truth.

Our journalism exalted the lowest of these to the highest income brackets in the history of the press. Editors freely let them persecute by slander decent citizens whose innate honor and dignity forbade them to truckle to such vermin. Editors permitted them to publish brazen sneak ads, the lowest form of journalistic corruption, promoting their own enterprises in night clubs and the radio. And as Roosevelt came along, they were allowed to serve him as trained pole-cats to defame his opponents. It has been a deliberate, unconscionable betrayal of the editorial responsibility by men who would be the last to claim they were too ignorant to know better.

One hears whines that the newspaper business is sick. Editors in dumb, solemn conclave ask why. They don't need economists and surveys to tell them why Let them look at their papers.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

If All Tissue Isnt' Removed in Tonsillectomy It Will Grow and May Become Re-Infected

Written for NEA Service
By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

There are probably more tonsillectomies performed in the United States than any other single operation. The first question today raises a problem which comes up frequently in connection with this operation.

Q—"My tonsils were taken out three years ago, and since then I feel something on the left side of my throat when I swallow. Could this be caused by tonsil stubs—would you say something about this?"

Mrs. M. M

A—Tonsils are made up of what is known as lymphoid tissue. This kind of body material has a remarkable ability to grow, so that if there is the least bit left in the throat after a tonsillectomy, tonsil tags or stubs may reach considerable size and can even become re-infected.

At the time of tonsillectomy, a great effort is made to remove all of the tonsillar or lymphoid tissue, but sometimes this cannot be accomplished. It is possible that your symptom is caused by a tonsil tag and your physician could readily tell by looking in the throat. If such a stump is present it might or might not be necessary to remove it.

* * *

Q—"Our son has what the doctor says is tuberculosis The doctor wants the boy to have his lung collapsed, and says it will take one treatment a week for at least three months. What is your opinion

Mrs C. M.

A—The collapse treatment for tuberculosis of the lung is a thoroughly accepted method for suitably selected patients. What is does essentially is to allow the lung to rest, and this, in turn, permits the tuberculosis to heal. Frequently this treatment is started in a sanatorium and then continued after the patent is up and able to get about.

* * *

Q—"Our 18-month-old son almost always has a reaction after eating eggs His face breaks out almost immediately. Does this mean I should stop trying to give him eggs and how long can I expect such an allergy to last?

Mrs V M

A—This certainly sounds as though this infant does have an allergy to eggs. Eggs should be removed from his diet, and it will probably be necessary to keep any foods cooked with eggs or with eggs in them, like cake or pie, away from him. This allergy may last indefinitely.

* * *

Q—"Is it true that people over 60 years old should not change climate?"

Reader.

A—No.

* * *

Q—"I suffered an injury years ago which left me with a weakness in the lower back referred to by my physician as a chronic lumbo-sacral sprain This seems to be getting worse, and any form of lifting or pushing makes the whole region of my lower back sore. I have been wearing a girdle with metal stays which helps the back some. Do you think an operation would be helpful?"

M. E. G.

A—One does not lightly decided to operate in a condition of this sort. It is almost always wise to try conservative measures such as you have been doing, at least for some time.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Bad Luck Isn't Only Way to Lose

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

I ran into Hard Luck Joe the other day, but fortunately I saw him before he saw me. It was at the Cavendish Club in New York, and Joe was busy mangling the hand shown today.

West opened the three of spades, and East won with the king. East continued with the ace of spades, and dummy ruffed. Joe then drew trumps, discovering that there was no trump entry to dummy since the trumps were 3-1.

Joe next laid down the ace and king of clubs to unblock the suit and tried to get into dummy with the queen of hearts. This attempt failed, so Joe lost three heart tricks and was therefore set two tricks.

Would you play it the same way and then complain about your hard luck? It's an unlucky hand, all right, since you make the contract with a 2-2 trump break or if the king of hearts is held by West. But there's a way to make the hand despite the hard luck. Can you see it?

The correct play is to refuse to ruff the second spade. Just discard a low heart from dummy and let the enemy do their worst.

If East shifts to spades, diamonds, or clubs, you can win and draw trumps. That leaves the six of trumps in the dummy as an entry to the long clubs. You just take the ace and king of clubs and lead the five of diamonds to dummy's six Then dummy has three good clubs to take care of your three small hearts.

If East leads a third spade at the third trick, you must ruff with the eight of diamonds. And, of course, you discard another heart from dummy. Now you can draw trumps, clear the clubs, and lead the five of diamonds to dummy's six.

He has prepared a plan of rehabilitation for these Indians which can be carried out with the cooperation of the people in his community, leading educators, social workers, and other business and professional people.

Charge Sterling Man With Theft Of Auto Tire

An information was filed today in county court by States Atty. Morey C. Pires against Albert Davile, Sterling, on a charge of larceny.

Davile was arrested by Sheriff Charles Redebaugh, who signed the complaint, early Sunday morning. Redebaugh was investigating an accident on the Rock Island road when Davile ran the stop sign at the Nelson spur nearby.

He was picked up by Redebaugh who found a tire in the back seat of the car. The information charges that the tire was stolen and is the property of Wayne F. Janssen, Nelson.

Davile was fined $100 early Sunday morning by Justice of the Peace Sterling W. Schrock on a charge of driving without a license and he faces a charge of running the stop sign as well as the larceny count.

The information says that the value of the stolen tire, inner tube and wheel is $35. Davile is now in the county jail being unable to post bond of $1,000.

Exiled Leader Tells of Communism in Poland

"THE PEOPLE'S ENEMY, it says here," explains Aloizy Adamczyk, center, exiled Polish leader, displaying a Polish Communist newspaper which describes him as a menace to the Red state. Adamczyk spoke to Dixon Jaycees last night about conditions behind the iron curtain. Shown with Adamczyk are James Hey, left, Jaycee president, and Gus Swan, past president.

Anti-Reds Need

Many of them are returned to the countries they escaped from. Canada has a much more liberal policy, Adamczyk stated.

Broadcasts by Radio Free Euroue and the Voice of America are being heard behind the iron curtain, Adamczyk said. He has been listed by the Reds as an enemy of the people because of his radio work. "Because of diplomatic relations which the United States maintains with the Soviet Union the Voice of America is not allowed to call Stalin a murderer or a bandit but we can say so on Radio Free Europe," Adamczyk stated.

Must Await Chance

He explained that the exiled governments are doing their best to prevent armed revolts in which many would be killed. "The Poles gladly would give 2,000,000 lives to throw out thet Reds but it is useless to fight now. We must wait for the right opportunity."

However an anti-Red underground is active since informers in the ranks of the secret police warn persons who are about to be arrested so that they can flee to the hills where they join roaming bands which prey on Red supplies, Adamczyk stated.

Hits Isolationism

The speaker warned against osalationism here. "If you don't care what happens over there the Reds will take Europe with its 300,000,000 people and all its industry and skill. Then what is left? India has no army. Africa is empty and America with only six per cent of the world's population canot win."

Adamczyk said he believes the Reds are afraid to start World War III because of the unrest in the countries they have conquered as well as in the Soviet Union. "War can be avoided if America arms to the teeth. The Reds will retreat before force," the speaker stated. However, he admitted that war can come by accident.

Tito a Killer

During a question period following the talk Adamczyk threw another blow at American foreign policy. "Tito is a killer just like Stalin. He has an argument with Stalin but he is still a dictator. Why make deals with one bandit who disagrees with another bandit?"

He said, "The American people should not believe that the sacrifices in Korea are worthless. They have shown the Russians that the free world will fight and that they can no longer conquer without a fight. The world is too small today to permit a war anywhere," he said. "Any conflict, no matter how small, affects the entire world."

Pratt Company Has No Plans For Expansion

No expansion is planned by the Dixon division of the Henry Pratt company following recent purchase of the company buildings on Dixon's southwest side, according to K. P. Rowe, plant manager.

The property lies north of the Purity Mills property line between the Illinois Central tracks and the Chicago and North Western spur track.

Rowe said that the plant was purchased early this month from Purity Mills but did not disclose terms of the sale. Also part of the sale is the Kavanaugh Co. Inc., 900 Depot av., which makes Christmas decorations.

According to Rowe the Kavanaugh company now is leasing from the Pratt company. Besides the main plants of the Pratt and Kavanaugh companies there are several storage buildings, Rowe stated.

The Pratt company makes butterly valves of cast iron and steel to be used in utilities and in aircraft testing wind tunnels

Firemen Fry That Fly!

A new type of fly catcher and killer is being tried out by members of the Dixon fire department to remove the pesky insects from the local fire hall.

The smokeeaters have rigged up a metal plate on a wooden base with an electric connection. Over the plate is strung several fine wires.

* * *

On top of the plate is placed several grains of sugar to lure the flies to certain death. After a number of flies are found nibbling at the sugar, the electric current is turned on and—poof!—the flies receive an experience similar to that of a condemned man in the electric chair.

* * *

An experiment in the new apparatus was tried this morning with discouraging results. The flies just would not light in the trap to eat. Instead they munched on a few morsels of sugar inadvertently spread on the floor in setting out the trap.

All patent rights on the fly killer are strictly reserved by the Dixon city and rural fire departments.

Meat Producers May Hurt United States Security

NEW YORK, (AP)—Recent actions of the meat industry could threaten our national security, says price stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle, and "might well destroy confidence in the Democratic process."

Meat producers, DiSalle adds, might take a lesson in "Democratic discipline" from southern cotton growers.

DiSalle spoke here last night at the New York Herald Tribune's 20th annual forum, which ends tonight.

Congress Will Get Chance to Act on Clark

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Congress will get a chance to decide whether the United States should have a full diplomatic representative at the Vatican, church-state of Roman Catholicism in Italy.

The White House announced yesterday that President Truman is not going to offer Gen. Mark Clark a recess appointment. Press Secretary Joseph Short said "it is more satisfactory to Clark" to await congress' action.

Mr. Truman sent to the senate the nomination of Clark to be the first American ambassador to the Vatican last Saturday, just before congress adjourned until Jan. 8. The senate must approve ambassadorial appointments.

But the House would also be involved in this case. It would have to vote on a waiver, for Clark, of the law forbidding military officers to accept civilian government posts. To accept an appointment while congress is in recess, Clark would have to resign from the army.

The nomination has raised a storm of protest from many Protestant quarters, and praise from Catholics. There was no suggestion that the controversy influenced Mr. Truman's decision not to give Clark a recess appointment.

Clark is a four-star general, in command of U. S. field forces.

Pet Ape Goes Berserk; Owner In Hospital

SAN DIEGO, (AP)—Bobo, a pet ape which kept A. H. Peterson company in the cab of his truck, went berserk yesterday and attacked him.

The semi-truck and its two empty tank cars plunged over a 35-foot embankment. Peterson leaped clear.

He is in Scripps Memorial hospital at La Jolla, unable to give a coherent story of just what happened. Attendants said arteries in both his legs and his right ankle were severed by the ape's teeth.

Bobo had calmed down by the time William Patterson of Wilmar, Calif., reached the overturned car. Bobo was taken to the city pound. He quickly made friends and feasted on bananas and carrots.

Bobo is somewhat smaller than a collie dog. The ape was chained for his rides.

'Open Water' Duck Blinds Regulated

New Rules on Placement Have Logical Basis

SPRINGFIELD, (AP) — New rules restricting placement of an "open water" duck blind, a kind of ambush for waterfowl, weren't made to bedevil Illinois hunters.

A state game department spokesman says they were designed to keep hunters from nagging ducks incessantly with buckshot and chasing them right out of the state.

The blind, usually a platform built over water on stilts and camouflaged with foliage to conceal the hunter, wasn't subject to open water restrictions until this year. The last legislature ordered the new rules. They're effective with the season opening Friday.

For Better Shooting

They weren't passed "just to plague the hunters," one department spokesman says. "Instead they were planned to give more and better shooting."

"The thing is, that the ducks have got to have some place to sit down and rest away from the guns once in a while. Otherwise, they will soon move on to other waters where they can get away from the constant barrage. They will fly right out of Illinois," he says.

Sam Carney, the department's chief enforcement officer, says this is the essence of the new rule:

Blinds must be located within 150 feet of the main shoreline or the shoreline of an island, or within the lines of natural vegetation sticking up above the water.

Offer Interpretations

Here are some of his interpretations of this:

You can put your blind on a stump or within it, regardless of how far out in the water the stump is located, provided that the tree stub naturally grew there and it protrudes above the water.

If vegetation sticking above the water extends even as much as 500 feet from the shore, you can erect your ambush anywhere within that 500 feet.

There's one big "but" of warning that's passed on to waterfowl hunters:

Level May Go Up

The water level may go up after you have erected your blind. The 500 feet of exposed vegetation may shrink to 100 feet and your stump may be submerged.

In that case, you can't shoot from the blind until the water level drops and vegetation re-emerges.

Heimerdinger on Ground-Gaining Trail Once More

DEKALB —(AP)— Bob Heimerdinger, Northern Illinois State quarterback who won the national total offense title among the small colleges last football season, is hot on the trail of the crown again this year.

Bob has completed 52 out of 114 passes for 963 yards in five games thus far. Last fall he had hit 48 of 115 for 819. Bob has lost 51 yards on the ground, giving him a total offense mark of 912 yards, 13 less than he had in 1950.

Heimerdinger has tossed 11 touchdown passes. A year ago at this time he had thrown only nine.

Marquette, Tulsa Sever Grid Relations

BULLETIN

MILWAUKEE —(AP)—Marquette and Tulsa agreed today to severe their short athletic relationship immediately.

C. M. Jennings, Marquette athletic director, said he had had "a long talk" by telephone this morning with Dr. George D. Small, Tulsa's coordinator of athletics, and that both had agreed it would be in the best interests of all concerned" if next year's return football game here was cancelled.

MILWAUKEE —(AP)— A decision was expected today on whether athletic competition between Marquette university and the University of Tulsa will end at one fotball game.

Marquette Coach Lisle Blackbourn has charged that Tulsa used "flagrantly illegal tactics" in a contest last Saturday. He said he would not permit a team of his to play against the Golden Hurricane.

Tulsa coordinator of athletics Dr. George D. Small countered Tuesday by suggesting an immediate end to sports competition because of what he called Blackbourn's "unsportsmanlike" outburst.

To Mull It Over

But then Marquette athletic director C. M. Jennings telephoned Dr. Small and the two agreed to "mull over" the matter and come up with a decision today. Jennings said Dr. Small was going to call him for the final discussion.

The furor began Monday night when Blackbourn accused Tulsa of using illegal tactics while winning a 27-21 verdict over Marquette Saturday night in Tulsa. After looking at movies of the game—which was the first time the two schools ever met—Blackbourn said he would not permit a team of his to play against a Tulsa squad again.

After Dr. Small heard of this, he wired his suggestion that the schools forget about competing again.

However, Jennings announced that he had talked to Dr. Small and that they were going to 'sleep on it" before making a decision.

Jennings said Dr. Small's wire accusing Blackbourn of "unfair, unsportsmanlike and one-sided charges" was made in the heat of passion.

To Weigh Situation

"Dr. Small abhors the situation as much as I do," the veteran Marquette administrator said. "We're going to weigh the situation from all angles."

A return game is scheduled here between the schools next fall.

Tulsa Coach Buddy Brothers declared, after being told of Blackbourn's statement, "we're not ashamed of anything we did." He invited fans to a public showing of the game movies Wednesday night.

Game referee Bat Shunatona commented that he saw nothing unusual during the contest.

Blackbourn said that Marquette back Al Thomas was clipped almost under the noses of two officials who failed to call a penalty.

"We couldn't pass until the last quarter because our ends were wrestled to the ground," he complained.

Durocher Gets Citation as Baseball Manager of Year

NEW YORK—(AP)—Leo Durocher, whose managerial career hung in the balance four years ago, is baseball's "manager of the year" for 1951.

The 45-year-old pilot gained the accolade for leading the New York Giants to the most sensational pennant triumph in National league history.

Durocher won the award in an Associated Press poll conducted among the 187 members of the Baseball Writers' association of America.

The Giant leader collected 113 votes to breeze home ahead of Casey Stengel, manager of the World Champion New York Yankees, who was second with 64. Stengel won the award in 1950.

Other pilots who figured in the poll were Al Lopez of Cleveland, Paul Richards of the Chicago White Sox, Jimmy Dykes of the Philadelphia Athletics and Marty Marion of the St. Louis Cardinals. Lopez and Richards received four votes each and Dykes and Marion one apiece.

Durocher, advised of his selection while playing golf near his West Los Angeles winter home said:

"That's great news. It makes me very, very happy. I am very grateful.

"I'm grateful to the New York Giants' team. It was the players who made this possible for me. Without them, without the grand way they played I wouldn't get this honor, of course. They came through and played like the champions they are."

Durocher's darkest hour was in 1947 when he was suspended for the season by former baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler for "conduct detrimental to baseball."

Durocher returned to the helm of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948 but on July 16, in a move that stunned the baseball world, he switched to the New York Giants. Brooklyn's most hated rivals.

Asks Hearing On Attacks in Aggie Game

DES MOINES, Ia.—(AP)—The Drake university athletic council has unanimously agreed to ask for an immediate hearing with Missouri Valley conference officials over what the council calls "malicious and intention attacks" upon football star Johnny Bright by Oklahoma A&M.

The 11-man council, meeting here for over three hours last night, said in a prepared statement it will "immediately register a strong protest with officials of the Missouri Valley conference. The council also said it is asking for a meeting with Commissioner A. E. Eilers and executive vice president George Small of the University of Tulsa by no later than Sunday, Oct. 28."

John Bright

In St. Louis, Commissioner Eilers said he would have no comment until he had received the protest. He also said he would have to confer with Small regarding the meeting requested by the council.

The great Negro halfback, the nation's all-time ground gaining leader, suffered a broken jaw early in last Saturday's football game with Oklahoma A & M. Bright, who has been hospitalized here since his return from Stillwater, Okla., Sunday, is expected to be released today. Doctors said he might see limited duty against Iowa State this week.

Cite Reasons

The council said it decided to protest the incident "in view of the lack of positive and satisfactory action on the part of the officials of Oklahoma A & M" and after viewing "motion pictures of the game provided by Oklahoma A M, still pictures provided by the press, written reports of Drake officials who were present at Stillwtaer, and a report from the player concerned."

The council said it also is requesting a "complete investigation" of the "total situation surrounding the Oklahoma Aggies-Drake game," adding "as soon as all the facts resulting from this investigation are at hand, that a full meeting of conference faculty representatives be held to discuss what action should be taken by the conference regarding our protest."

The statement said the council "unanimously agreed that there were at least three vicious, malicious and intentional attacks upon the person of John Bright, which were gross violations of football rules and ethics."

The Oklahoma A & M athletic council Monday said it planned no action unless Drake filed a formal protest. The council, after viewing the game movies, admitted two of the "blocks were illegal but unintentional."

Aggie tackle Wilbanks Smith, who also figured in the incident, has denied he intentionally injured Bright. He said, "I have played a lot of hard football games and you give and you take. If I overcharged Johnny, I regret it."

Oklahoma A M officials were not immediately available for comment on the protest.

Kentuckians Will Tell Story at Hearing Nov. 7

NEW YORK, (AP) — Alex Groza, Ralph Beard and Dale Barnstable, the three former University of Kentucky basketball players accused of shaving points in important games are scheduled to tell their story at a hearing on Nov. 7.

They were arraigned yesterday on charges of taking bribes of $500 to fix a 1949 game, and were released on $1,000 bail. The bail was arranged by J. R. Kimbrough, general manager of the Indianapolis Olympians of the National Basketball association. Groza and Bear are part owners of the club.

Lou to Try Hand With Bosox

ON THE DOTTED LINE—Lou Boudreau, left, former manager of the Cleveland Indians, signs a two year contract in Boston to manage the Red Sox as the team's general manager, Joe Cronin, looks on. Cronin says the new field boss will have a free hand in running the club on the diamond.

HUGHES VIEWS of SPORTS
BY HUGH HUGHES

Isn't it just about time to scrap the whole goofy college athletic setup that has been such an embarrassment to thinking Americans these past few months?

SUCH A QUESTION is not original. But certainly it is timely.

For the mounting indictment against college sports as they now stand has hit a new high (or low) during the last week. Let us document briefly some of the proof, then consider the solution, if there is a solution.

TALAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 17—(AP)—A football game between Florida State University and Bradley university was cancelled today because the Peoria team has several Negro players.

* * * *

CHICAGO, Oct. 20—(AP)—Former All-America basketball greats, Alex Groza and Ralph Beard, today were arrested and charged with accepting bribes to shave points when they were leading Kentucky to collegiate fame in 1949.

* * * *

DES MOINES, Oct 22—(AP)—"I remember getting fists in the the face the first two plays we had the ball," John Bright said speaing of the broken jaw he suffered early in the first quarter of the Drake-Oklahoma A&M game Saturday.

* * * *

NEW YORK, Oct. 22—News that the fix is on in collegiate football "can't help maing the headlines very soon," asserts Stanley Woodwdard in the current issue of Look magazine. He states that George L. Cross, president of the University of Oklahoma, predicts the scandal will "erupt from a New Year's day bowl game."

* * * *

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 24—(AP)—A decision was expected today on whether athletic competition between Marquette university and the University of Tulsa will end at one football game. Marquette Coach Lisle Blackburn has charged that Tulsa used "flagrantly illegal tactics" in a contest last Saturday. Tulsa's coordinator of athletics . . . countered by suggesting an immediate end to sports copetition.

* * * *

These dispatches, gleaned from a week's editing of the "sports" news that comes across this desk, present too strong a case to be ignored.

HOW LONG shall our colleges permit their athletic endeavors to make a mockery of the principles taught in their classrooms? Must honesty, tolerance and friendly competition inevitably be replaced by dishonesty, bigotry and cut-throat tactics, as the past week's news seems to indicate?

The answer to these crucial questions can come from one or more of several sources: The public, the students, the college heads.

WE THINK THE final decision must lie with the colleges themselves. We think the time has arrived for colleges and universities in the United States to admit they have been wrong in their approach to athletics and follow the path of the University of Chicago, a great institution that became greater when it junked its big-time athletic program.

It will take bold, courageous college presidents and boards of trustees to take this step. It will be an unpopular decision at first. But we have a hunch that once the step is taken both the colleges and the public will be surprised at how small the loss will be if the college athletic program as it exists today is abolished.

AP Swami Sees Wisconsin Over Wildcats by 7 Points

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—About to go under for the third time, the ol' swami coughs up these football forecasts:

Wisconsin 21, Northwestern 14—If Quarterback Johnny Coatta's bad ankle holds up, the Badgers should notch one of their most important Big Ten victories . . . But they'll have to go all out for it against a hard-driving, high-spirited Northwestern club that has rolled over Colorado, Army, Minnesota and Navy in succession. . . . This will be the young Wildcats' first real big test of the season. . . .

Illinois 27, Indiana 13 — The undefeated Illini must be doubly wary of the unpredictable Hoosiers no ground down Ohio State 32-10 in a major upset last week. . . .

Michigan 13, Minnesota 6—One of the Western conference's most bitterly contested rivalries, the Little Brown Jug series, finds the Wolverines riding high with league wins over Iowa and Indiana and making a determined stand in defense of the Big Ten title after a dismal season start.

Ohio State 20, Iowa 13— Both team were humiliated last week by lopsided losses and should be bristling for a comeback. . . . The Buckeyes have the guns and won't be firing blanks in trying to salvage some of their lost prestige. . . .

Notre Dame 21, Purdue 7 —The Irish, riddled by SMU's Fred Benners, will have their pass defense up against Purdue's Dale Samuels who a year ago was instrumental in snapping Notre Dames' four-season undefeated streak. . .

Michigan State 27, Pitt 7 —The Spartans are proud of that No. 2 ranking nationally and would like to pour it on the hapless Panthers. The margin could be bigger.

Marquette 14, Miami of Ohio 6— The overdue Hilltoppers will catch up with the timetable. . . .

'Rocky Can't Fight,' Says Brown Bomber

NEW YORK, (AP)—Joe Louis thinks he'll knock out Rocky Marciano Friday night at Madison Square Garden.

"He can't fight," said Louis after watching movies of the Marciano-Rex Layne fight. Joe didn't even stay to see the ending and Marciano's knockout victory.

The 37-year-old ex-champion looked fit and trim as he breezed through his final boxing session, hitting with power.

Smith Hits Deck

Polly Smith, a 178-pounder from Bermuda, hit the deck after absorbing a whistling hook to the jaw. Elkins Brothers, a main go heavyweight, also absorbed a pasting.

Despite reports of Louis' fine condition, odds favoring the Bomber slipped a peg to 6½ to 5 against the unbeaten Brockton, Mass., slugger. They're the lowest in Louis' big time career.

Marciano, with youth and speed on his side, worked on endurance yesterday in four-minute rounds. It was a switch for the 27-year-oldster who has been boxing two-minute rounds with Jimmy de Lange of New York.

Trainer Charley Goldman, an old hand at whipping fighters into shape, explained the change.

Shortened Rounds

"We worked Rocky two minute rounds to gain speed," he said. "I wanted him to work four minutes to be ready to keep up an attack. We believe Louis no longer can stand up when you go to him and keep punching."

Louis finished heavy work yesterday but Marciano will box again today to get ready for the big test of his career.

The 10-round bout will be broadcast and telecast from coast to coast (9 p.m. CST).

War, Unrest Marks Sixth UN Birthday

PARIS, (AP)—In an atmosphere of tension and fear of war, peoples around the world today marked the sixth anniversary of the United Nations, the world organization dedicated to the task of preserving peace.

France marked the day by giving the U. N. a golden key to the palace which will be the world organization's home in November.

Foreign Minister Robert Schuman handed U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie the key to the Palais De Chaillot where the general assembly will open its sixth session Nov. 6.

As the blue U.N. flag was hoisted over the building, Schuman said he hoped the psychological atmosphere of France would help the 60-nation organization along the road to peace.

Oct. 24 is celebrated as U.N. day because the charter officially came into force Oct. 24, 1945.

There were observances in almost every world capital.

In Moscow, the government newspaper Izvestia charged that the U. N. had become the tool of British and American imperialists. Despite Kremlin coldness, the U. N. information center in Moscow planned a flag raising ceremony and showing of films on U. N. activities.

The idea has spread, so that now practically every college has its yearly homecoming day for alumni.

Cabby Held for Abducting Girl; Seized in Iowa

BOSTON — (AP) — A nine-year-old girl—a doll in her arms and a wedding band on her finger—was brought back yesterday from Dubuque, Ia., where she was taken by a cab driver who now faces kidnapping charges.

Little Carol Ann Fowler of Amesbury was quoted by federal officials as saying the gold wedding band was purchased by Clarence L. Daneau, 21, also of Amesbury, before they left the Massachusetts city with another couple Sept. 21.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Edward D. Hassan said Daneau will be charged with kidnapping when he is brought back here, possibly today.

The little girl, Daneau, Daniel R. Trafford, 23, and Miss Marjorie Robinson, 17, a waitress, all of Amesbury, were arrested in a motel near Dubuque two weeks after their disappearance.

Iowa Deputy Marshal Albert J. Halbach said the child and Daneau shared one room and Trafford and the Robinson girl another room.

Hassan said Trafford intended to divorce his wife in Las Vegas, Nev., and marry Miss Robinson. The Fowler girl and Daneau were taken along as traveling companions. The quartet left Amesbury after a birthday party at the Daneau home in the little girl's honor, Hassan added.

Two-Bit Gambler Held for Murder Of N. Y. Hoodlum

HACKENSACK, N. J.—(AP)—New Jersey officials have lodged a formal murder complaint against a New York man who they said seemed at first to be only a "two-bit gambler," in the shooting of Willie Moretti.

The complaint against Joseph Li Calsi, signed yesterday, will be filed today in New York, said Harry L. Towe, New Jersey deputy attorney general.

Moretti, colorful and talkative gambler, was shot to death in a Cliffside park restaurant Oct. 4.

A tip from a blonde nightclub singer resulted in Li Calsi's arrest Saturday in New York. The singer, Pat Clifford, said she drove three men, including Li Calsi, to the restaurant a short time before Moretti was murdered.

Towe, head of the Bergen county prosecutor's office, said Li Calsi originally looked like a "two-bit gambler," but now appears to be "considerably bigger."

Night driving is more than three times as dangerous as daytime motoring.

Reds 'Foolish' To Oppose Will Of UN-Truman

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman told the Russians today they are "utterly foolish" to oppose nations handed together to seek "peace and justice."

Speaking on the anniversary of the birth of the United Nations, the president declared:

"I hope the time will not be far distant when the leaders of the Soviet Union and their satellites will come to see that it is utterly foolish to oppose the united will of all the other peoples of the world for peace and justice.

"But so long as the forces of aggression are attacking the United Nations, there must be no weakening—there must be no slackening of our efforts to check aggression and to build up the defense of the free world."

The president spoke at the laying of the cornerstone for the building a District of Columbia Red Cross chapter.

Mr. Truman devoted much of his talk to a plea for blood for the Red Cross banks.

He said one of the best ways for the public to support the men in Korea is to give blood through Red Cross for the use of soldiers.

One of the presidential campaign slogans of William Henry Harrison was "Two dollars a day and roast beef."

Divorcee Found On Road, Dies; Probe Mystery

SHAWNEETOWN, ILL.—(AP)—Death of an attractive divorcee today, 24 hours after she was found unconscious on a highway, posed a mystery for officials.

She was Mrs. Jolene Downey Graphler, 25, of Omaha, Ill. Her body was described at a mortuary as "badly broken." Sheriff P. C. Cox of Gallatin county said he was investigating but added "it's still a mystery." He declined to speculate on the possibility that she may have been a traffic victim.

She lived with her mother, Mrs. Mamie Spence, who said her daughter had left their Omaha home Thursday to go to New Haven, Ill., and had not returned. She was found on Highway 13 in Gallatin county Monday morning by a passerby. She died in an Eldorado hospital.

King George Has Cancer, Says Doctor

MILAN, Italy, (AP) — Prof. Pietro Valdoni, a prominent Italian physician, told the newspaper Corriere Della Sera last night that Britain's King George VI had cancer of the lung when he was operated on last month.

In London, a Buckingham palace spokesman said today "there is absolutely no comment" on the report.

"The only people who can say exactly what was the matter are the king's doctors, and they have not said anything at all," the palace spokesman said. All or part of one of the king's lungs was removed in the operation.

Valdoni, according to the newspaper, said he was told of the cancer "in a precise way by the assistant of the surgeon who operated" on the king.

The account quoted Valdoni thus:

"There are fears that the surgical operation might have been performed too late, since cancer of the lung is one of the most difficult diseases to diagnose and takes a long time to identify."

King George suffered from repeated respiratory ailments for about three years before the operation. His doctors, when they announced the operation would be done, said a series of X-ray pictures disclosed "structural changes in the lung."

Dead Communists Given Last Rites

WITH U. S. FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION, Korea, (AP) — Pfc. William M. Cross, Devonia, Ten., thought 12 Communist soldiers should have some kind of religious service at their burial.

So each was lowered into the grave, the Tennessee soldier read the following passage from St. John:

"I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness but shal have the light of life."

Empty 75 mm. shell cases were used to mark the graves scattered on a North Korean hillside.

"I did the best I could," said Cross.

Former Beauty Queen in Check-up On Narcotics

CHICAGO. (AP) — A former Michigan beauty queen says she ran from an inquiring policeman because she was afraid he would accuse her of drug addiction.

Peggy Ellsworth, 24, Miss Michigan of 1947, was quoted by Police Lieut. Joseph Healy of the narcotics detail, after she was charged with disorderly conduct yesterday.

Lieut. Healy said Miss Ellsworth, who was to appear with two companions in narcotics court today, had needle marks on her arms which still disclose her old addiction.

Miss Ellsworth and two musicians, Harold Luttenbacher, 27, and William Green, 21, a Negro, were stopped at a south side intersection for a traffic violation Monday night. During questioning of the men, she attempted to flee, but a policeman caught her several hundred feet away.

FIRST AID for Everybody

IV--Prevention and Treatment of Shock

(This is another of a series of articles, written especially for Central Press Association and this newspaper on first aid, a subject gripping the nation in the light of threatened atomic aggression. The articles are based on the American Red Cross First Aid course. First aid principles, applicable to atomic as well as other disasters, are outlined. The Red Cross offers a 22-hour course free which teaches fully the technique of first aid.)

Except in cases of head injuries, feet of shock victims should be elevated.

By Central Press

SHOCK IS EASIER to prevent than to cure, so the Red Cross textbook on first aid teaches the first aiders to begin treatment of injured persons immediately without waiting for symptoms of shock to develop.

In case of severe bleeding, bad burns, broken bones, crushing injuries, shell, bomb and bullet wounds treatment of shock is urgent. The kind of shock that comes with severe injuries is a state of collapse in which all bodily functions are depressed due to failure of circulation.

Other factors—pain, rough handling, improper transportation, continued bleeding, exposure to heat and cold or fatigue—may contribute to it. The aged and the very young are likely to suffer most.

* * *

THE FOLLOWING points are listed in the first aid directions for treatment of shock:

Keep the patient lying flat. If the injury is severe, raise the feet 12 inches or so, except for head injuries. If there are chest injuries, raise the head and shoulders slightly so the victim can breathe. Never force a victim to stand. Even if a wall is falling after a bomb blast, it is better to drag him away on a coat or by his coat collar rather than make him walk.

The victim should be kept warm, not hot. Cover him with a blanket, coats or newspapers. Place covering under him for protection against dampness and cold. Even in an atomic catastrophe, don't permit him to stand if it can possibly be avoided. Here the standard Red Cross course may be followed.

Don't ever give water or other liquids to an unconscious person. If he is conscious and can swallow and is not nauseated, he may be given small amounts of warm water, broth, milk, tea or coffee. You may need to feed him with a spoon. Do not give liquids, however, if there is an abdominal injury.

The use of stimulants in first aid treatment of shock is without value. The textbook points out that although coffee and tea are stimulants, they are given for their heating values.

The victim, it is emphasized, should not be disturbed by unnecessary questioning or handling. Utmost care to minimize pain should be taken and bleeding must be stopped.

(Tomorrow's article will deal with burns.)

Rain Slows Harvest in N. Illinois

SPRINGFIELD, (AP)—Rainy weather has slowed the harvest of corn and soybeans in Northen Illinois, the weather bureau and state-federal agriculture departments said today.

Another reason corn picking lags in northern counties is that a good deal of the crop still contains too much moisture for cribbing, the agencies said in their weekly crop bulletin.

Over the state, nearly 95 per cent of soybeans and about one fifth of the corn have been taken from the fields.

All but a small fraction of winter wheat has been seeded. Early planted fields show good stands and are growing well.

Posture Habits Get Blame for Speech Defects

TORONTO —(AP)— Talking hoarsely these days? Try standing up straight, a researcher on speech defects counseled today.

Prof. Harlan Bloomer, of the University of Michigan's speech clinic, said that while there are various more serious causes of hoarseness and other speech difficulty, one possibility is "improper breathing."

And improper breathing, he told reporters at the 20th annual meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics, can result from failure to maintain a "reasonably erect posture."

Bloomer said that many cases of stuttering, distortion or omission of sounds, and the rapid-fire type of speech known as "cluttering" have their origin in the first year of a child's life, even though they may not be recognized until age three or four.

Emotional tenseness in the baby, caused by such things as parental "heckling" could be a factor, he said. Poor sleeping or eating habits also could contribute. A parent's speech difficulty could be a further contribution, Bloomer added.

ASSEMBLY PARK

If you are looking for a home site, you should drive to Assembly Park, and acquaint yourself with the beauties of that location.

Nowhere in Dixon can you find a spot as desirable—old and magnificent trees, with years and years of growth and an incomparable view of Rock river, known as the "Hudson of the West."

Here you find seclusion, here you will find a high class neighborhood in which to bring up your children. Assembly Park is destined to be the most attractive building spot in Dixon.

An Office Is Not Complete Without a Collection Taker

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, (AP)—No day is complete in the life of the American office worker until he is dunned by "the collection taker."

This is the hand-in-your-pocket individual who comes up to sandbag you out of your spending money for the welfare of some other character in the office zoo.

The contributions usually are for one of the following causes:

1. Old Joe, the office bachelor, has passed on, mourned by his four bookies and a wide circle of distressed bartenders. How about some flowers for good old Joe?

2. Susie, the boss's varsity stenog, has quit to go home and have triplets. Let's raise a fund to send at least two of the kids through college.

3. Pat, the young and popular stock clerk, has just come down with a bad attack of miasma in the adenoids. Come on, fellows, dip deep—and let's finance Pat to a week on the beach at Miami.

* * * *

Everybody sooner or later gets the chore of going around the office and taking up these collections. And it has two advantages. It keeps you from having to do your own work, and if you make the collection nobody knows whether you actually contributed any cash yourself.

* * * *

Here are some of the worthy-cause victims you'll find in every office in the land:

1. The stern-principled grouch—"I'll give two bits if it's for a funeral. Otherwise, count me out."

2. The pass-it-on-to-management advocate—"Why doesn't the firm have a fund for situations like this?".

* * * *

3. The doleful donkey — He reaches in his pocket as soon as he sees you, and groans, "Don't tell me what it's for. Just tell me how much you want."

4. The happy contributor — "Sure, put me down for a buck. I'm glad to do it. I don't have it with me—you put it in for me, will you?"

5. The Coward—He hides out in the men's room every day until noon so nobody can separate him from the four bits his wife gave him for lunch.

* * * *

6. The empty-pockets bluesinger—"Gee, you know I'd like to. But the mortgage on our television set comes due tomorrow."

7. The cry baby—"Nobody ever took up a collection for me."

8. The cheerful four-flusher—"I can't get in on it right now. But see me Friday for sure. Now don't forget."

9. The Philadelphia lawyer type—"I think you are going about this in the wrong way. How about getting him workmen's compensation? Has anyone written the Social Security board?"

* * * *

10. The average guy—He puts his hand in his pocket, gives a wry grin, and forks over the dough he'd hoped to buy a few beers with. But he goes home feeling a little warmer in his heart for knowing the people where he works stick together in little ways, in times of happiness and hurt.

CHOICE BUILDING LOTS

If you are interested in living in a restricted neighborhood where you find good neighbors and good environment for your children—select a home in Assembly Park.

You will not have to wait for trees to grow, there are many old and beautiful ones throughout the park. A commanding view of Rock River makes this section the oustanding building spot in Dixon

New Radar Net Nearly Completed

BY ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The 295,000,000 radar system for warning of possible aerial attack against the United States is nearly completed, Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg said today.

The air force chief of staff told reporters the complex and far-flung detection system should be in full operation soon.

But, he indicated, it will take longer before all the units of new jet interceptor planes needed as a vital second part of the air defense system are ready. The first planes provided for under appropriations made two years ago are only now beginning to be delivered.

Diverts Funds

The air force, with substantial appropriations by congress and by diverting funds from other projects of lower priority has been able to rush the radar net near to completion in a little over two years.

The warning and interceptor forces of the United States work in close liaison with those of Canada in the protection of the northern hemisphere against a surprise aerial strike by Russian bombers or paratroops across the polar areas or the high latitudes of the Pacific or Atlantic oceans.

Problem Staggering

Air force experts point out, however, that the problem of establishing even a reasonably adequate radar warning system has been staggering because of the vast area involved in the Alaskan-Northern Canada-Greenland air approaches. The area involved is 30 times greater than England, which in World War II had the greatest concentration of radar and fighter plane defenses then known.

In the new North American radar network, a single station may cost as much as $5,000,000 and require 400 men to maintain and operate it. And dozens of such stations are needed for the Arctic perimeter alone, not including special defense areas in the industrial sections of the U. S. and Canada.

No Fine for Piggy Bank Lawbreaker

PHOENIX, ARIZ. —(AP)— A six-year-old boy, piggy bank in one hand and a parking ticket in the other stood before traffic court judge C. W. Pensinger yesterday.

"My mother said I've got business with you judge," the lad said tears in his eyes.

The mother explained her son had forgotten her instructions to put a penny in a parking meter and the car had been ticketed. So they had gone home and gotten his piggy bank from which to pay the fine.

Judge Pensinger dismissed the charge on condition the boy remembers mother's instructions in

Inflated Balloon in Stomach New Cancer Detection Method

NEW YORK, (AP) — A balloon to discover deadly stomach cancers early, when they can best be cured was shown in a new American Cancer Society movie today.

The person swallows the balloon, attached to a tube, then it is inflated, deflated and withdrawn. It's not painful, but not pleasant.

Picks Up Cells

A fine silk mesh covering the balloon picks up cells thrown off by the stomach walls. An expert checks these cells, looking for cancer cells. This can spot cancers while they still are small, still confined to one spot. Cutting them out then means a much better chance for the person to live.

The balloon method spotted stomach cancers in more than 90 out of 100 test patients, said scientists attending the society's annual meeting.

The stomach cancer is the biggest killer of all cancers. It took 26,215 American lives in 1948, two-thirds of them men.

Up to now, only about five per cent of people with stomach cancers have been cured, by operations, because the deadly silent cancers were discovered too late. They were too big, or had spread elsewhere

The balloon offers a promising way of detecting many stomach cancers far earlier, said Dr. Charles S. Cameron, medical and scientific director of the cancer society.

Discovers Far Earlier

The movie was prepared at Cornell university medical college and the New York hospital by Dr. George Papanicolaou and Dr. William A. Cooper. Dr. Papanicolaour pioneered the method.

It can find cancer of the uterus or womb far earlier than other methods. It's also being used now to locate cancers of the stomach, lungs, rectum, and lower intestines.

Daughter will enjoy baking a simple white cake in a square pan and then cutting the cake in small squares and frosting these to make petit-fours. For holiday serving she can decorate the petit-fours with silver shot, colored sugar, candied cherries, angelica and small pieces of semi-sweet chocolate

Norworth revealed yesterday that they were married last Wednesday at—most appropriately—Lovington, N.M. His first wife was Nora Bayes one-time musical comedy star, who died last year.

Norworth, who also wrote "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," was a vaudeville celebrity in the early 1900s.

Presbyterian Church Leader Fears Socialism

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — The new top executive officer of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. fears that unless a workable democracy solves international political and social problems, the world will be driven toward totalitarianism.

The Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, former pastor of the Pasadena, Calif., Presbyterian church, spoke yesterday after his installation as stated clerk of the order's general assembly. He was elected to the post, succeeding the late Dr. William B. Pugh, of Wallingford, Pa., at the denomination's 163rd general assembly in Cincinnati last May.

Dr. Harrison Ray Anderson, of Chicago, moderator of the general assembly, presided at the installation.

Your First Car can be a Buick!

THIS being a land where it is every man's right to dream of getting ahead—and the pursuit of happiness is guaranteed by the Constitution—it happens that a great many people aspire to own a Buick.

But too often they start with a lesser car first—from a feeling that Buicks are something you have to build up to gradually, as your take-home pay improves.

So—if you have any such notion—we'd like to set you straight, right here and now.

You don't have to hope and dream and wait. If you can afford a new car—the first car you buy can be the Buick SPECIAL pictured here.

Its price tag says so. Its low cost of operation says so too.

We know that it looks like a lot of money. That's what makes it such a buy.

We know that it has a long list of features found in costlier cars, and that it rides and handles like cars that sell for a great deal more.

But that simply means that—at its price—you're getting a very big money's worth.

All of which adds up to one conclusion: the smart thing to do is come in and give this neat and nimble new SPECIAL a thorough going-over.

Try out its power—the power of its high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball Engine.

Try out its ride and handling—and you'll discover it has the "big-car feel" that you'd expect from a Buick.

Try it out for size — for room — for comfort — for all the things that you've dreamed someday of having in a car—and you'll thank your stars that you found out the facts of life in time.

*Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

DYNAFLOW DRIVE*—saves strain on driver and car

FIREBALL ENGINE—high-compression, valve-in-head—gets more miles from every tank of fuel

PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT—combines smart style and unsurpassed protection

WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS—greater clarity at night

TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE—seals the chassis, steadies ride, improves driving control

4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING—cushions ride, saves servicing costs

SELF-ENERGIZING BRAKES—hydraulic—multiply pedal pressure five times at brake drum

DREAMLINE STYLING—tapered, car length fenders, gleaming sweepspears on most models

It looks like a good week for Chet Dierdorf, after his Monday night series of 630, he came back last night with 610 for the Vets loop high total . . . Bill Lieving had five pins between his games of 162-167-172, Work Order Planning had their minds set on 140 last night with H. Wyckoff having 140, Irving Perela 145, Ken Dipple 145-140, Bus Eakman 144 and Claude Knox 148 . . . Don Houck was slightly erratic last night, starting with 209 and dropping to 133 and then upping his score 100 pins to 233, the middle set keeping him from a chance at 600 . . . Jaycees had a 130 complex with Bob Mathias showing 132, Don Emmert 134-130, Jim Green 133, Matt Goral 137 and Clem Reid 138, 134 . . . Jim Green had nine pins between his games of 124-133-142 . . . Roundup all had games in the 140s, Joe Kopacz 141, Pinky Vallery 146, Fletcher Yarbrough 140, 145, Ed Uebel 148 and Leo Whitman 143 . . . Andy Bryant probably was willing to call the whole thing off at the end of three games after starting with 196 and dropping 32 pins a set to 164 and 132 . . . Louie Mosher had three pins between his games of 120, 123, 126 . . . We might remind the Shaw company league members that next Sunday is their scheduled day to take over at the Recreation. We had the schedule in Monday, and the time is 1:45 . . . In the hopes that folks attention will be distracted from the queer antics of some of the men keglers, two teams of girls have been formed to take over the other two alleys for the league sessions . . . Joe Ribble spaced his games 14 pins with 114-128-142 . . . An added attraction when Rae Arnould's Insurance five takes the alleys in the Classic league, will be Ray Burrs, who'll be trying for a good series, to bring his average up somewhere near his brother Pat's.

Stripper Resumes Her Act; A Screen (Small) Is Added

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — The physical assets of Miss Lili St. Cyr, almost all of 'em, anyway, went back on public display last night.

The statuesque stripper, who went into temporary retirement last week after the law accused her of "lewdly exposing her person," reopened at a filmland night club with a "milder" act.

Patrons Applaud

The paying patrons were enthusiastic, even though they saw less of Lili than she is accustomed to exposing. But two sheriff's officers, present in the role of "art" critics, failed to applaud.

There was, they said, still too much of Lili.

For the sake of art (and $5,000 a week), Miss St. Cyra does an act that is simplicity itself. She disrobes and takes a bath.

For last night's "milder version she peeled off her gown and unmentionables behind a small screen, a very small screen.

Sheriff's Capt. Walker Hannon said it was too small.

Show Goes On

He also said there should be a screen in front of the big champagne goblet in which Lili does her scrubbing. With these modifications, Walker and Capt. Pete Sutton said, the show could go on.

"But it still looks like a strip act to me," Hannon commented darkly.

Miss St. Cyr, 30, luscious, leggy veteran of 14 years on the burlesque circuit, was pinched on the indecency charge last week and will be arraigned tomorrow. Her boss, Herman Hover, who was arrested, too, said he was cancelling the show. But yesterday, after the American Guild of Variety Artists reviewed Lili's act and approved it, Hover changed his mind.

He reinstated Lili and said: "I intend to fight this thing all the way."

Mrs. Bickford was presented with gifts.

Mrs. Mon is making satisfactory recovery and is able to sit up in bed part of the time. She would like to hear from friends in Polo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Avey were Sunday dinner guests in the Walter Avey home at Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carter, Freeport, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Osterhoudt Sunday.

Peoria Delays Treatment of Water Supply

PEORIA, (AP) — The city council has decided not to rule yet on a controversial proposal to add fluorine to municipal drinking water in an effort to reduce tooth decay.

The council voted last night to refer the plan, attacked by some Christian Scientists, to the Peoria District Dental Society, the Peoria Health Society and the city health department "for further study."

Alderman Roxy Larocca, chairman of the council's health committee, said the council was not qualified to rule on the plan, which he said called for "medical decision."

Some Christian Scientists protested against the proposal, advanced by the dental society, on ground fluorination of drinking water is a form of medication and would violate their religious liberty.

U. S. Spending Amounts to $636 For Each of Us!

WASHINGTON, (AP) — In the session which ended Saturday, congress approved government spending which amounted to $636 for every man, woman and child in the country.

The final compilation by the house appropriations committee showed today that congress voted $91,626,563,164. That does not include an estimated $7,000,000,000 in more or less permanent allotments which include such items as about $6,000,000,000 on the national debt.

On the basis of 154,000,000 population, that means $636 for each person. While not a record outlay, it is the third highest in history, being exceeded only by two World War II years.

Utah Indians Paid Million for Land

FORT DUCHESNE, Utah, (AP)—Ute Indians, who live in semi-poverty on the arid, empty acres of eastern Utah, will collect a million dollars from the federal government today.

The money will go to 1,679 members of the Uintah-Ouray reservation as a down payment on ancient, tribal lands. The money is for lands taken from the Indians in western Colorado.

Lee Center Church Planning 'Harvest Festival' Sunday

Next Sunday, Oct. 28, the Lee Center Congregational church will observe its "Harvest Festival."

There will be a scramble supper held in the church dining room at 6:30 p.m. Everyone is asked to bring food for their family and their own table service. The beverage will be furnished.

A service of worship and thanksgiving will be held in the sanctuary at 7:45 p.m. Prof. Edward Himmel, teacher of botany at North Central college will be the speaker. Charles Fleck and Theodore Snider, students at the college, will offer special music for both services.

Mrs. John Brasel is chairman of decorations. She is being assisted by Mrs. Howard Welman, Lyle Breitweiser and Jack Carlson.

The church has been making some extensive improvements on their property, and everyone will be given and opportunity to contribute a "harvest offering" to replenish the treasury of the church.
